Tango Echo Launch

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gallup, NM, April 20th, 2009 - While on the road, Vin Marshall and Kate Taylor have launched their new web magazine, Tango Echo. With the dynamic duo still thousands of miles from home, the website will initially track their progress across the country, ideally encountering new people and places to feature on the site as they go.

Tango Echo is a technology, arts, and culture magazine with an emphasis on exhibiting the works of DIY artists, craftsmen, and engineers with an out of the ordinary vision and a desire to shape their environment.

About Vin Marshall:

Vin Marshall is the personality behind TE Motorworks and the Dispatch from the TE Labs internet video show. He seems to be making a habit of driving vehicles older than he across North America.

About Kate Taylor:

Kate Taylor brings the "culture" side to this technology, arts, and culture magazine. She has a knack for road trip photography.
